

From: The Stewards Date: 13 August 2020
Decision No: TC-11 Time: 10:30
To: Competitor's Representative
Car No. 57 – Copeland Motorsports Driver: Tyler Gonzalez

At the conclusion of TC America Race 1, The Technical Manager conducted inspections and tests on several manufacturer's TCA cars, to verify compliance with the Balance of Performance parameters as set out in the SRO TCA "Homologation Regulations for TCA Touring Cars – 2020" – Article 1.

At the conclusion of those tests, the Technical Manager reported to the Stewards that the performance of the No. 57 TCA car, as raced with the manufacturer-supplied engine management control system, tested outside the performance window as defined in the class category and expected BoP window.

The Stewards held a hearing with the manufacturer's representative – Bryan Herta of BHA – who acknowledged that the measured performance was outside the expected window for TCA cars. The Stewards also held a hearing with the Copeland Motorsports team representative - Dean Copeland – to review the findings.

Team: No. 57 TCA - Copeland Motorsports

Competition: Sonoma Raceway TCA Race 1, 7 August 2020

Facts: Post-Race 1 dynamometer testing of the No. 57 TCA car showed performance outside the allowable performance window for TCA competitors.

Supporting Documents: SRO TCA Homologation Regulations for TCA Touring Cars 2020 document, report of the SRO Motorsports America Series Manager

Decision: There will be not manufacturers points awarded for any TCA Hyundai competitors. The driver of the No. 57 will maintain his finishing position, but will lose 10 drivers points, netting 15 drivers points.

The Competitor is reminded of his right of appeal (Sporting Regulations Article 18) except where the penalties which are not susceptible to appeal (Article 18.3 of the Sporting Regulations).
